"MOTHER MAY I?"

No questions asked! Treat Mother to the leisurely brunch in Beverly Hills in honor of Her Day

Beverly Hills, CA April 2010 – There is no need to ask Mother if she minds being treated like a Queen in honor of Her day come the second Sunday in May. Surprise her with a toast of thanks to a leisurely champagne brunch in a sophisticated, yet relaxed atmosphere at The Beverly Hilton's poolside restaurant, CIRCA 55 on May 9, 2010.

Mom's the word with a classic California cuisine menu created by Executive Chef, Suki Sugiura. From the mountains to the prairies to the oceans, it will be a bountiful Spring buffet commencing with blueberry blintzes with lavender crème fraiche, fresh fruits and berries, eggs Benedict Florentine followed by chilled watermelon and creamy light soups accompanied by a selection of crisp salads and charcuterie platters. A sure Mom pleaser is the artisanal seafood and sushi stations. As well, traditional favorites are the carving stations of prime rib of beef, grilled rack of lamb, and 10 Cane Rum glazed smoked pit ham. The decadent dessert table designed by award-winning artist, Executive Pastry Chef, Frania Mendivil will melt in Mother's mouths not in her hands. Mother is sure to cherish being showered with the gift of thanks surrounded by crystal blue waters and champagne.
