

Sandy Murphy General Manager

Sandy Murphy has served as the General Manager of The Beverly Hilton since August 2008. A Hilton veteran with more than 25 years of experience, Murphy oversees all aspects of the nine-acre property, leading, and growing a legendary brand that has endured for nearly 60 years.

Sandy takes Conrad Hilton's philosophy "be hospitable" to heart. The warm and inviting ambiance The Beverly Hilton has enjoyed over the last two decades is most certainly the result of Sandy's kind and friendly nature. She has brought many worldwide productions to life and welcomed Presidents, Heads of State, A-list celebrities, and luminaries from all over the world into the hotel.

Prior to joining The Beverly Hilton, Sandy served in executive management roles spanning the West Coast. She previously served as the Area Vice President of Southern California, where she was responsible for the operation of a collection of Hilton and Doubletree hotels located in airport, suburban, urban, and resort markets. She also served as the Area Vice President of Northern California and the Pacific Northwest, overseeing 10 Hilton hotels in the marketplace. She started her Hilton executive management career at Embassy Suites in Covina, Calif. as Assistant General Manager. The Southern California native was also educated in the center of it all, beginning at Cal Poly Pomona and the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), where she majored in Finance, Human Resource Management, and Marketing.

Sandy lives and breathes The Beverly Hilton mission of "a time well spent" each day. Beyond the hotel, she is passionate about improving the quality of life of others through philanthropic endeavors such as The Sumer Nicole Alvarez Foundation, the Revlon Run/Walk for Women, and the Guide Dog for the Blind. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family and being active in the Beverly Hills community.

