25 of the world's best honeymoon hotels

15. The Beverly Hilton Hotel (Los Angeles, California)

Though it's best known for being home to the Golden Globes -- held in its ballroom every year -- this historic Beverly Hills hotel is as romantic as it is glamorous. Everything about the property feels understatedly sexy, from the retro, dimly-lit Circa 55 restaurant to the classic Hollywood-style pool, heated to 75 degrees year-round and open 24/7 in case you fancy a midnight dip. Cabana suites are breezy and tropically inspired and open directly onto the pool deck, but the most romantic rooms are in the Wilshire tower: they're bright and airy, with wraparound terraces and heart-stopping views over Beverly Hills and the glittering LA skyline.
