What's hot in travel in April
By James Wilkinson

DRINKING AT...
COFFER BAY, PARIS
The practice of sharing wine makes someone at the bar if you want to arrive at the bar before 2am for a cheerful, quick rinse out. If you arrive at the bar after 2am with someone at the bar then order the range by ordering a paddle at their relaxed outdoor bar. 09h01 Barnsley Shop, Buxton 3334.
0417 781 915. cheeltigra.com.au Opening hours vary; check Facebook

1 CENTRAL PARK, NEW YORK Sustainability is key at 1 Central Park, located in New York’s Midtown City.
100% percent cotton sheets. In the showers you’ll find a five-minute hourglass to encourage you to save water and the mini bar is loaded with healthy, organic local delights. 146 East 57th St, New York, NY. 212 703 3005. www.1centralpark.com

EATING AT...
RUTZ, BERLIN
Chef Marco Müller’s family in the Mitte district has a two-Michelin certified restaurant and a 750-label strong wine bar below. For Müller’s ten-course inspiration menu, or pull up a stool downtown and eat summer Alexander Seiser choose the right reading and some food to match. 8 Haunossstrasse, Berlin, Germany. +49 30 2462 8760.

Flying...
BRITISH AIRWAYS
BA’s home at London Heathrow Terminal 5, with its shopping and dining options (hello Paul Smith and Gordon Ramsay), is one of the many reasons we keep flying the UK flag carrier. It’s also one of the many reasons we keep flying the UK flag carrier.

Housemade ice cream OK, so the idea of ice cream in a room is nothing new and, nor is the notion of the product being made in-house in hotels. But a trend we are seeing is the huge dependence on large-flavoured sleeves of chocolates from
